

"India Monetary Policy - Fostering Growth with Stability"

Members India investment round table with Dr. Rakesh Mohan, Fmr. Deputy Governor, Reserve Bank of India and distinguished consulting professor at Stanford Centre for International Development, Stanford University

Kindly mark this date: Tuesday, October 6, 2009 at 5:00pm

Please register by clicking here, RSVP

A rare and unique opportunity to hear the inside story of strategy, planning, execution and future opportunities. We are pleased and honored to invite you to an intimate Members round table dinner to meet Dr. Rakesh Mohan, World renowned economist, with an impeccable academic pedigree, a practical reformist and an expert on global policy and has been a key economic adviser to the Government of India during the economic reform process.

Dr. Rakesh Mohan was deputy governor of RBI when the global financial crisis swept the world including India. Please join us for a fascinating and stimulating evening of background stories from the inner sanctums of RBI.

Dr. Rakesh Mohan
Consulting Professor,
Stanford Centre for International Development
Stanford University

"If conservatism means 8-9% GDP growth, increased savings/investment levels, well capitalized & profitable banks, sustained low inflation/financial stability, then I will go for RBI conservatism any day."

HOSTED BY THE GLOBAL INDIA VENTURE CAPITAL ASSOCIATION

Date: Tuesday, October 6, 2009

Time: 5:00pm - 6:00pm | Registration/Cocktails/Early Networking/Dinner
6:00pm - 6:45pm | Speaker Perspectives and Q&A
6:45pm - 7:30pm | Networking

Location: Quadrus Conference Center
2400 Sand Hill Road
Menlo Park, CA 94025

(650) 854-2342
www.Quadrusconference.com

Please R.S.V.P. by Thursday, October 1, 2009

Select R.S.V.P link to register online or via email to Ms. Jerrilyn Wong, jwong@us-ivca.org

We are looking forward to welcome you to this event and thank you in advance for your Support, help and participation in our GIVCA events.

Bakul Joshi, Executive Director